Sue Pine, CAE, Long-time AH VP, Selected for the 2019 ASAE Class of Fellows

AH's Vice President of Professional Development recognized by the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE)

MT. LAUREL, N.J. – March 21, 2019 – Association Headquarters (AH) proudly announces that Sue Pine, CAE, Vice President of Professional Development, has been selected for the 2019 American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) Class of Fellows. The Fellows program recognizes individual accomplishments and contributions to ASAE and the association sector, and it is a call to service for the profession.

The ASAE Fellows program is an honorary recognition bestowed upon less than one percent of ASAE's membership, representing the best of the association community.

“We are proud to have Sue as part of the AH family. She brings great enthusiasm and passion to work with her each day,” said AH President & CEO Bob Waller Jr., CAE. “This recognition is very well deserved and Sue certainly embodies what it means to be an ASAE Fellow.”

Sue joins 262 association industry professionals who have received this designation since the program's inception in 1986. Serving as role models and ambassadors for the association community, Fellows seek out opportunities to serve on boards and committees and participate as speakers, authors, reviewers, and mentors.

To be eligible for Fellows consideration, a candidate must be an ASAE member for the past five consecutive years. Successful candidates are accomplished professionals who have demonstrated their ability to contribute to the achievement of the Fellows' goals.

The Fellows selection process includes: endorsement by a peer; an in-depth application describing the individual's innovation, leadership, and commitment to the profession; an interview with two members of the selection committee; and selection from among a group of highly-qualified candidates.
